Changing horses along the way . . .

HITCHING POSTS...where the 49-ers stopped and took stock of the situation...picked new tools...or acknowledged the worth of old ones. As freshmen of 1945-46 they had drifted along Woodland Road, through their classes...learning about P.C.W. traditions with Dr. Anderson, the new president...walking to Pete's, Sodini's, the Drug and East Lib...knowing the rules, following the older prospectors. They were verdant 49-ers...they knew every inch of their four year camp site...yet they drifted, the four years ahead of them a rocky mountain...

In 1946-47 it was those things they knew well that changed...a new wing was added to Fickes Hall...the Purple Seal moved downstairs into the old locker room...the day students were eating lunch with the dorm students in Woodland Hall, where there were new tables and chairs, more crowds, and a new dietitian, Miss King, to handle them all. There was an unlimited cut system...another raise in tuition, room and board...a young assistant Dean, Miss Dalzell, with more late permissions and help with activities. The New Curriculum had been launched...the 49-ers argued for it; they fought against it, though they were not a required part of it. They tired of drifting...like students universally, they griped...respecting and loving their college...working, writing, meeting to make it the best, small, liberal woman's college...

By their junior year, 1947-48, they were living with more and more girls from out of Pittsburgh and Pennsylvania...the college was receiving more publicity...national educators studied the curriculum and the students firsthand. Demands had moved the Purple Seal into the book store...a lodge was on campus for informal parties, classes and dates...the Woodland drawing room was redecorated and one wall knocked out...new furniture was in the Conover Room, in Mellon library...new paint made Berry Hall and the chapel more stimulating...plans for a chapel, a gym and a dining room were announced. The 49-ers marched into their senior year...the older prospectors...alert, energetic...

Sadie was in the Snack Bar, open for quick lunches...an assistant dietitian handled the dining room...the new hockey field was ready...the chapel was built come snow, rain, or classes...kitchens and more phones were in old Woodland. Students were getting used to signing off and on before and after vacations...a vice-president, Dr. Hamilton, offered concrete suggestions for a better P.C.W. There was a five-year music course...a Music

Council...an Opera Workshop...Kolberg and Stolarevsky from the Pittsburgh Symphony...Whitmer, the white-haired composer, was with the college again. England sent Dr. Chapman and Storm Jameson...the frosh wore dinks instead of pins. Fencing and camping were taught...the Ski Club enthusiasts spent weekends at Seven Springs...Hockey Play-day and dorm days were added to the A.A. repertoire. There were set penalties for late minutes in House Government...a set number of late permissions per class...eleven o'clocks for Sunday nights...one o'clock for the seniors on Saturday nights...cars on campus before spring vacation. An activity file system helped campus leaders...cigarettes appeared in some classes and in finals. Those late for dinner sang for their supper...a campus etiquette booklet was published...heavy bull sessions about blue jeans came and went. The activities fee rose...more, more and more plays were given as the men of the faculty became better actors...

The 49-ers held on to spirit with picnics and parties at the Fergusons... a senior dance at the Roosevelt... dinners, Alice in Wonderland, teas. They had Mrs. Alexander, Ellsworth, Snell and Zelt in their classes...they sang hallelujah to the Dean...they didn't win the song contest. Like true 49-ers, they had horses for the Ku Klux Klan demonstration that won Mock Election. They had built better hitching posts...investigating the Honor System, evolving a Judicial Board...dividing the old Arrow into a true newspaper and the Minor Bird...instituting the system of applying for the editorships of publications...disbanding the obsolete permanent nominating committee system for sponsored nominations and platform campaigning. They were ninety-three strong...breaking the four-year camp...leaving maps behind them...riding on toward the gold of life with P.C.W. tools...

"I'm Packin' My Grip"

Good-bye, Girls, I'm through . . . with everything but the chore of packing to go home for the Summer. And that would slay me if I didn't have my dreams of the lovely, off-this-hemisphere things I saw on a shopping trip through Boggs and Buhl, many of which I hope to own before I leave. Want to hear about some of them?

Sacony Summer Suits of famous Palm Beach cloth, cool and wiltless. Seven models—with long or short sleeves—in eight different colors and white. $25. . . . The New Denim Co-ordinators, matching play clothes, you know. In sea blue, and further smacking of salt and the Navy via braid trim and a sailor collar on the halter. Shorts and Halters, $2.95 each; Flared Skirt, $5.95; Sunback Dress with bolero jacket, $8.95 . . . Par-Form Bathing Suits of rayon satin Lastex (exclusive with B & B), only $8.95. One and two-piece styles in five colors, black and white. AND, girls, T-Shirts that are really glamorous!—Helen Harper originals with gorgeously colored biadere stripes, at $2.95. And Twinsters (T-shirt and cardigan) with cross stripes in orange-and-gray, brown-and-aqua, etc., at $3.95 a set. . . . A tricky Convertible Skirt in marvelous India print cottons have wide sashes that turn them into topless dance dresses—$7.95 and $8.95. . . . The newest Summer Dance Dresses are of cotton pique in red-and-white and green-and white prints or domino dots, in the Misses' Shop at $25. . . . The latest Sunback Cottons are in two-tone colorings—purple-and lilac, gray-and-gunmetal, navy-and-powder-blue, at $6.95. (Other cotton sunback dresses, ($8.95 to $14.95). . . . Summer Coats are 28 and 30-inch toppers in bright and light colors and white, at $19.95. . . . New cool sleepers are Pedal Pusher Pajamas of fine cotton batiste in pink, blue and yellow, priced $3.95; and Puff-sleeve Gowns of the same fabric in ice cream colors, are $2.95. . . . Oh, yes, nice figure slimmers are Vassarette Brief-panty Girdles, cool-knit ones of rayon with nylon, paneled with beautiful brocade fabric, at $5.00.

I found all these things—and more—on Boggs and Buhl's Fashion Floor, the Second.

➡ ➡ SPECIALIZED PLANNING AND ENGRAVING
SERVICE FOR YEARBOOK STAFFS . . .

Relax, kids, it's all over . . . you've seen us through the thick of picture schedules and the thin of budgets and ads . . . we thank you (from the depths of the beds we're finally using), we thank you. We were impatient at times . . . we disregarded some classes, some names, some events, some hands and feet . . . still, you gave us the faith of understanding. We'll miss the plans with the dummy, the phone calls, the hours in the office . . . the fun and help that Hans Jonas and his father gave us as photographers . . . the letters that flew between us and Fred Noer at Indianapolis Engraving Company . . . the walks to Siviter's and the kindness of Mr. Siviter as we chose type, colors, and read proof. Perhaps there's a demoniacal chuckle mixed with our sighs as we unlock the files for Merney and her staff . . . but we'll say goodbye cheerfully . . . relax, the 1949 Pennsylvanian is with you and your children and their children . . . we love 'em all.

Neo-Angle Bath!

DAD loves a shower. And he can take it standing up or sitting down in the Neo-Angle Bath. Plenty of room, yet it takes up a space only fourfeetsquare. That means better room planning.

MOTHER likes those two wide corner seats and the "on-the-bias" bathing area of the Neo-Angle. So ideal for foot baths! And she liked the wide choice of colors. She selected Corallin.

BROTHER needs no coaxing now — a bath is fun! Those seats were made to order for a young sailor. And he can splash all he wants without messing up the whole bathroom.

BABY is safer in a Neo-Angle Bath, and so much easier to bathe! The Neo-Angle has lower sides, broader, flatter bottom, and generous seats that save Mother bending over.

SISTER calls Neo-Angle "the most luxurious bath in the world." So smart to look at. So spacious and comfortable to bathe in. So relaxing! It's a new angle on bathing you shouldn't miss.

You'll find just what you need in the American-Standard line of Heating Equipment. Above — Wynadotte gas-fired Winter Air Conditioner

MAKE IT A POINT to get full details on the Neo-Angle Bath and the other heating and plumbing products that bear the famous Mark of Merit.
